RE: RECOMMENDATION FOR Hi Tech Data Group™

Save the Elephants would like to recognize and recommend Hi Tech Data Group™ for the exceptional service provided during a complex server data recovery project.

In August 2025, we engaged Hi Tech Data Group™ to recover critical information from a server storage system consisting of eight RAID 5 drives following a system failure. The nature of the incident required specialized technical expertise and a careful recovery strategy.

From the initial assessment through completion of the recovery process, the team demonstrated professionalism, technical competence, and a strong commitment to protecting the confidentiality of our information. Their methodical approach and attention to detail ensured that the recovery exercise was handled efficiently and responsibly.

The team maintained consistent communication throughout the engagement, providing updates and explanations that helped us understand the progress and status of the recovery.

We are satisfied with the service provided by Hi Tech Data Group™ and are happy to recommend them to organizations requiring expertise in data recovery, digital forensics, cybersecurity, and other advanced IT services.

We wish Hi Tech Data Group™ continued success in all their future projects.

Yours faithfully,

Lesley Nalwa
